

Lillian Sung Bi-Lingual Tour Leader

Lillian Sung, a native Chinese speaker from Taiwan, has a Master of Fine Arts degree from the Rochester Institute of Technology.

Lillian has lived, taught and traveled extensively in China, including 2 years as the Associate Dean at International Art and Design College at Inner Mongolia Normal University. Lillian has comprehensive knowledge in Chinese history, culture, medicine and art. She is a tea connoisseur who also enjoys preparing gourmet Chinese dishes. This spring Lillian taught basic Chinese for the Columbia Public School Community Education Program. Many of her students toured China in May 2007 and were able to use the language skills they learned from Lillian to interact with the Chinese people and enrich their experiences in China.

About Columbia Friends of China

Columbia Friends of China (CFC), a community-wide non-profit organization promoting understanding and friendship between Columbia and our sister city Laoshan, China. Members of CFC have plan, coordinate and assist in funding exchange activities in educational training, economic development and cultural exchanges. CFC has presented seminars on the Mayor's trip to China, Confucius's life and philosophy, Chinese Opera appreciation, Chinese cooking lessons and medical missionary history in China. CFC also works closely with area schools to promote Chinese language for our students. In August 2007, CFC will sponsor a local Bluegrass band Ironweed to perform at the Qingdao International Beer Festival. The Taste of China is the first tour organized by CFC to provide a memorable cultural and culinary experiences for citizens in Mid-Missouri
